

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Gerard Rooney
St. John Fisher College
104 Kearny Hall
Rochester, NY 14618

Dear President Rooney,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate St. John Fisher College's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Heidi Macpherson
SUNY Brockport
350 New Campus Drive
Brockport, NY 14420

Dear President Macpherson,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate SUNY Brockport's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Peter Nwosu
SUNY Oswego
706 Culkin Hall
Oswego, NY 13126

Dear President Nwosu,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate SUNY Oswego's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Denise Battles
SUNY Geneseo
Doty Hall 310
Geneseo, NY 14454

Dear President Battles,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate SUNY Geneseo's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Martha Pollack
Cornell University
300 Day Hall
Ithaca, NY 14853

Dear President Pollack,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate Cornell University's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

Chancellor Kent Syverud
Syracuse University
900 S Crouse Ave
Syracuse, NY 13244

Dear Chancellor Syverud,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate Syracuse University's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President David Munson Jr.
Rochester Institute of Technology
1 Lomb Memorial Drive
Rochester, NY 14623

Dear President Munson,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate the Rochester Institute of Technology's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Sarah Mangelsdorf
University of Rochester
240 Wallis Hall
Rochester, NY 14627

Dear President Mangelsdorf,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate the University of Rochester's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3222

December 8, 2023

President Satish Tripathi
University of Buffalo
501 Capen Hall
Buffalo, NY 14260

Dear President Tripathi,

I am writing to you with concern over the recent House Education & the Workforce Committee hearing entitled "Holding Campus Leaders Accountable and Confronting Antisemitism." As you all may be aware, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik during this hearing asked President Claudine Gay of Harvard, President Liz Magill of the University of Pennsylvania, and President Sally Kornbluth of the Massachusetts of Technology one simple question: Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate your school's code of conduct? Sadly, none of these presidents would unequivocally say yes.

In the face of rising anti-Semitism on college campus and across America, I wish to ask you the same question presented to the Presidents of Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, and MIT:
Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate the University of Buffalo's code of conduct?

Given the simplicity of this question, I respectfully request a response from you no later than December 19, 2023. Further, a simple "Yes" or "No" answer would also be acceptable. I appreciate your attention to this important matter and hope to work with you to combat all calls for violence.

Sincerely,

Claudia Tenney
Member of Congress